Remarks

Lincoln County is the third largest county in South Dakota by population and has grown by at least 20,000 net new residents in each of the past two decades as Sioux Falls has expanded to the south, sprawling outward across the Minnehaha County line. It has only backed one Democrat presidential nominee since 1936, in Lyndon Johnson's 1964 national landslide.

Disparate voting outcomes are almost exclusively clustered in the northwestern portion of the county nearest Sioux Falls, especially in Harrisburg and Tea. All precincts appearing in the worst precincts list should be prioritized for canvassing to identify voter registration illegalities, especially since voter registration fraud in South Dakota has been proven to be prevalent, particularly in transient living quarters such as RV parks, apartments, and assisted living centers.
