Remarks

Meade County is in far western South Dakota and part of the Rapid City metro area. It has been a Republican stronghold in presidential elections since 1940, backing every Republican presidential nominee but one since then. The county experienced modest population growth since 2010.

10 precincts rate moderate for statistical indication of election manipulation, all in the western portion of the county, but no precincts rate high, which requires a likely estimate of 150 or more fraudulent ballots. All precincts appearing in the worst precincts list should be prioritized for canvassing to identify voter registration illegalities, especially since voter registration fraud in South Dakota has been proven to be prevalent, particularly in transient living quarters such as RV parks, apartments, and assisted living centers.
